

said "Oh, Barbara Mr. Hall has not been home all night." Conversed about telephoning hospital and police and Mrs. Hall said she did not want any publicity (471-a-2).

Hall had a big green Case car and a Dodge Sedan (472).

About 9.45 Mrs. Hall went out in the Dodge Sedan with a little child staying in the house who arrived Wednesday afternoon (472).

The child, Frances Voorhees, was Mrs. Hall's niece and was to stay a week and slept alone in a room next to Willie's (473).

Barbara heard Mrs. Hall walk from her room to the bathroom and back at 2 o'clock Friday morning (473-4).

She heard no automobile at that time or before that time.
(474)

Did not remember seeing Mrs. Hall again until 7.30 Friday evening (475).

Then Mrs. Hall said to her "Oh, Barbara, where is Mr. Hall" (475).

Did not see Mrs. Hall again until about a little before ten when she came into the kitchen and told Louise to close up the house (475).

Took some water to Mrs. Hall's room and Mrs. Hall said something about Mr. Hall still being missing (476).

In Friday morning's conversation Barbara mentioned possibility of Mr. Hall being held for ransom (477).

Barbara wanted Louise to be careful what she said on Friday (477).
